

The seal of the State of South Dakota is a circular emblem with a serrated outer edge. It features a central landscape scene with a plow, a sheaf of wheat, and a rising sun. The text "STATE OF SOUTH DAKOTA" is arched across the top, and "GREAT SEAL" is arched across the bottom. The year "1889" is at the bottom center. The motto "UNDER GOD WE TRULY LIVE" is written in a smaller arc above the landscape. The year "1889" is also written in a dotted arc below the landscape.
